1. Residence of the Prefect of Boulogne, formerly the Bishop's Palace.
2. The Church and Telegraph.
3. Gate into the Upper Town.
4. The Custom House
5. The Pier Head.
6. Entrance of the Harbour.
7. A Cannon Battery.
8. A ditto.
9. The Lower Town.
10. French Flotilla.
11. Road to Paris.
12. Mr. Serres, taking the View in the Explosion's Cutter.
13. A Cannon and Mortar Battery on the French Flotilla.
14. A Bomb Point.
15. A Praam.
16. Mortar Batteries, and Park of Artillery.
17. Encampments, called the Army of England
18. The Immortalite Frigate (Captain Owen) bringing a Praam to Action
19. The Lads Frigate, Capt. Argles.
20. The Tuscany, Capt. Honeyman.
21. Hecla Bomb, Capt. Sykes.
22. La Seine Frigate, Capt.
23. Aitkins.
24. Illustrious, Captain Charles Hamilton.
25. Hired Cutters engaging the Flotilla.
26. Mortar Battery.
27. A Tower, built by the Commencement of France in the Decent of Monsr. Gobert
Balloon, which called the Dear of Pilatre du Rozier.
28. Carbon Battery.
29. The Explosion (Capt. Paul) prepared for Action, and making Signal that getting under Weigh.
30. A Fort.
31. Cannon Battery.
32. Mortar Battery.
33. Road to Calais.
34. Telegraph, which conveys Intelligence to Calais, Dunkirk, and Paris.
Bonaparte and Mamelukes
Harbour and Flotilla
PAINTED BY
BY MR. SERRES,
MARINE PAINTER
To His Majesty, &c.
The LEOPARD,
The Flag Ship of Rear Admiral Louis Capt. AUSTIN); from the Stern Gallery of which the Spectators view the Panorama.
Lane Sc.

PANORAMIC PICTURE OF BOULOGNE,

GREAT ROOM, SPRING GARDENS.

Open from Nine o'Clock in the Morning till Dusk.

Admittance One Shilling.—Descriptions Gratis.

Printed by J. ADLARD, Duke-street, Smithfield